40-month term

OXFORD: An Oxford man was sentenced to 40 months in prison on Tuesday at Oxford Crown Court after pleading guilty to sexually assaulting a woman at Sandford-on-Thames.

Gary Norris, 34, of Luther Street, was also placed on the sex offender's register indefinitely.

The victim was a 24-year-old woman who was pulled into bushes by the large bridge at Sandford Lock on July 30, but managed to escape.

Norris was arrested on the day of the assault, charged the next day and pleaded guilty to the charges at Oxford Magistrates' Court that day.

Displays go on UFFINGTON: The air displays set for the White Horse Show at White Horse Hill over the August Bank Holiday weekend will continue, say the event's organisers.

The flypast of the Avro Vulcan bomber will go ahead as planned on Sunday, August 30, following a decision by The Vulcan to the Sky Trust, which operates the vintage aircraft.

The aircraft is due to be grounded permanently at the end of the year.

There will also be a display by Mark Jeffries, of the Global Stars Aerobatic Team, and the RAF Falcons parachute display team will be dropping in.

Teen attacked

DIDCOT: A 17-year-old boy was taken to hospital after he was headbutted while walking across Cow Lane Bridge with a friend last Thursday.

They were approached by two men and one of them headbutted the victim, who sustained injuries to his face and was taken to Abingdon Community Hospital for treatment.

He has since been discharged and police are appealing for more information on 101.

Kitchen blaze

BICESTER: Firefighters were called to a house fire in Colne Close, Bicester, at 8.26am on Sunday after a female occupant smelt smoke and heard two smoke alarms. The Bicester and Oxford crews put out an oven fire.

Rhino birth takes keepers by surprise at Burford park

COTSWOLD Wildlife Park has lots to celebrate after the arrival of its second baby rhino this year.

Nancy, a white rhino, gave birth to a calf earlier than expected just five months after another white rhino Ruby gave birth to the Burford park's first male rhino.

The latest arrival will join sister Astrid who was born in 2013 to Nancy and Monty.

Park managing director, Reggie Heyworth, said: "You wait 40 years, then it seems like three come along at once. This is such a happy event for the park, and I have to pinch myself when I see six rhinos on the lawn."

Keepers knew Nancy was pregnant but the birth of the male calf at about 7pm last Tuesday took them by surprise. He is yet to be named.

Rhino births are extremely rare in captivity, with only 14 white rhinos being born in European zoos in the last 12 months. The park has now had two of the three recorded UK births.

The park was voted the UK's fourth best zoo by users of travel website TripAdvisor.

It was also rated the park the 12th best zoo in Europe.

District council sees increase in complaints

COMPLAINTS against South Oxfordshire District Council (SODC) have more than doubled over the last year.

Figures published by the Local Government Ombudsmen showed that complaints against SODC had increased from seven between 2013 and 2014 to 23 between 2014 and 2015.

Oxfordshire County Council received the most complaints in Oxfordshire, with 53.

It is the role of the the Local Government Ombudsman to independently investigate complaints against councils.

The other local authorities in Oxfordshire received a similar amount of complaints in both years.

The biggest increase in complaints against SODC were about housing - nine were received by the ombudsman this year, up from one in the previous year.

SODC spokesman, Natalie Ellis, said: "Although the number of complaints appears to have increased, only three resulted in the Local Government Ombudsman making a formal enquiry.

"The other complaints were either not pursued by the complainant, referred back to us because a complaint had not been made through our complaints procedure, or the LGO didn't need us to make a formal response."

However, complaints against Oxfordshire's councils are significantly lower than other authorities.

Between April 2014 and March 2015, Birmingham City Council received the most complaints with 578.

The ombudsman received 16 complaints about Vale of White Horse District Council this year - up slightly from 13.

A total of 11 complaints were made against West Oxfordshire District Council - down from 13 the year before.

Oxford City Council complaints increased from 30 to 32.

BRIDELICIOUS BOUTIQUE

As a child, Heather Churchman was never able to pass a church wedding without stopping with her mum to catch a glimpse of the bride. "Brides are special - a woman on her big day in the perfect dress gives out an inner glow," says Heather, owner of Wallingford's Bridelicious Boutique. "Every day I do this job, the passion never fades." Opened in 2011, the Bridelicious team have recently been nominated for the national Guides for Brides customer service award. This accolade is well earned thanks to the team's one-to-one, free, private consultations for brides-to-be. Heather, who has been married for 26 years and is mum to three boys ("so I'll never be mother of the bride!") says the shop is a female-friendly affair ("what happens in the shop stays in the shop!"). Prepare for your marriage, not just the wedding day

They say that love is blind, but it makes much more sense to go into marriage with your eyes open. When did you last talk about you as a couple? Are you taking the 'happily ever after' part for granted and getting caught up in the excitement of the wedding day?

Marriage Care, a national charity with over 65 years of experience helping couples, knows that enduring relationships need nurturing and cultivating.

A Marriage Preparation workshop looks at building and maintaining happy relationships, avoiding the pitfalls and supporting you to build the best possible future together. During the day you are encouraged to consider things that will nurture a lifelong relationship and understand how relationships grow when important issues are dealt with in a constructive and loving way.

Some couples prefer a more individual approach called FOCCUS. A trained facilitator works with you as a couple to explore how your relationship works, its strengths and potential issues, in a supportive and confidential environment.

Most people plan for the big things in life and getting married is no different. Over 2,000 couples have done this in Oxford over the past 20 years, with overwhelmingly positive feedback, why not check it out for yourself?

Call us on 0800 389 3801 (01159 934 255 mobile rate), email oxford.centre@marriagecare.org or visit our website at www.marriagecare.org.uk to book a course.

Win an evening at The Pointer Your chance to win dinner for 4 plus a bottle of champagne

THE Pointer is a real village pub at the centre of the local community where you can eat fantastic, locally sourced food. Wherever possible, produce comes from The Pointer's own farm and estate overseen by Stockman Jamie Brewer and Estates Manager Paul Gough. Produce direct from the farm includes beef from the very best free range English Longhorn cattle which is aged for a minimum of 30 days; and pork from the farm's rare breed Middle White pigs.

delighted to have been awarded two AA Posettes in The Pointer restaurant. Mini's menus change daily and are founded on carefully sourced produce and simple British classics with creative twists, all cooked and presented beautifully.

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

Welcome the light into your home with G2S Groups' new Aluminium Bi-fold Doors.

G2S are proud to be offering their new range of Aluminium Bi-fold doors that are perfect for any season and will add a whole new feel to any home. These doors provide a folding wall of glass that effortlessly joins two spaces together. As well as flooding your room with light, they create an open and modern feel, allowing you to remove the barrier between your home and the outside world. Transform your dining room and enjoy your dinner all fresco, without stepping outside of your home.

Why pick Bi-fold doors over patio doors? The fact that when you open the Bi-fold doors they slide, fold, and stack up neatly leaving you with a wide-open space, virtually the full width of the doorway. Our Bi-fold doors are both warm and secure with energy efficient seals and security locks. All prices include VAT, installation, locks, handles and thresholds.

Bellowhead at the Showground

By James Richings

jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

THIS year's Towersey Festival at Thame's Showground from Friday August 28 to Monday August 31 will see a folk band of 11 musicians boasting over 30 instruments between them.

Stuck in a traffic jam in 2004, friends John Spires and Jon Boden vowed the they would invite to join them on tour.

And Bellowhead was born.

"I never stop being amazed at where we've come from and where we are now," John told the Guardian.

"When I first started playing traditional folk music back in the late '90s, I knew it was something I loved and wanted to do, but back then it was quite released in 2010, has gone on to sell over unfashionable and right on the fringe of 60,000 copies. the wider music scene."

would end up shoulder to shoulder with of all time. mainstream music."

Performing on Saturday August 29, John and Jon are joined by Benji Kirkpatrick, Rachael McShane, Paul Sartin, Pete Flood, Brendan Kelly, Justin Thurgur, Andy Mellon, Ed Neuhauser and Sam Sweeney.

They have gone on to release five UK chart hitting studio albums, the latest of which, 'Revival', peaked at number 12 in the standings, their highest ever position in the charts.

John added: "We wanted to make an album which somehow acknowledged the recent resurgence of folk music into the mainstream, almost in the way it did way back in the folk revival of the late '60s and early '70s.

"The fact that we released it on the longer they were stuck, the more friends famous Island Label who put out so much great stuff in that era seemed very fitting.

> "Also, we always have a lively show! "We'll be playing a mixture of tracks from the new album and some old favourites too, so prepare to dance in the isles."

> Their third album 'Hedonism'.

The figures make it the highest sell-He added: "I had no idea that folk ing independently released folk album

Other artists preforming at the festival are Joan Armatrading, last year's joint runner up on The Voice Sally Barker, Oxfordshire born musician Nikki Loy and violinist Phil Beer.

The three brothers are hoping their gig this Sunday will be as good as the last time they visited the Banbury Road venue, which was earlier this

"It's always great to start a gig with some chilled covers whilst people are eating and then ramp it up a bit as the night goes on," Tom said.

"By the end of our last gig at Joe's

"We're really excited to be back, it should be a good night on Sunday as it's a bank holiday weekend.

He then added: "We enjoy every gig - it's what we all love to do.

"The special gigs are the ones where everyone is immersed in the music, dancing, singing and clearly enjoying themselves.

"When we can see that people are in London with many other live acts enjoying it and there's a great energy in the room, we always play better."

The gig starts at 7.30pm at the Banbury Road venue and is free when buying a meal.

Cornerstone's new autumn programme

THE Cornerstone Arts Centre in Didcot have announced their brand new autumn line-up which will begin on Thursday, September 17.

Kicking off the new programme will be Samuel Beckett's play, 'Waiting for Godot'.

The production, which was first performed in 1953, focuses on two friends Vladmir and Estragon as the duo learn about the meaning of life and death.

The play is suitable for over 12s. September will also see comedian and musician Alex Horne arrive at the Station Road venue on Thursday, September 24 with his very eccentric, 'Monsieur Butterfly' tour.

The 36-year old has appeared on a number of television shows which includes, 8 out of 10 Cats Does Countdown'.

The month will end with the children's production, 'Rosie's Magic House', which is based on the awardwinning book by author Russell Hoban.

October will be the busiest month of the new programme with 20 shows. Starting the month off will see come-

Sun, Oct 25, 2pm Cornerstone Arts Centre, Didcot DEATH, DUCK AND THE TULIP

Duck, Death and the Tulip is an award-winning performance for small children and their grown-up friends. Using puppets, mime and magic, it tells the story of a heartwarming and whimsical friendship between a playful duck and a character called Death. Together Duck and Death drink tea, go swimming, climb a tree, and keep each other warm. Duck acks lots of questions. Duck learns that Death, as a constant companion, is part of life.

PAUL POTTS

Winner of Britain's Got Talent Season One, Paul found global success with his albums, live shows and tours, impressing audiences worldwide with his powerful yet emotive operatio performances.

Six years later, and his feet are yet to touch the ground. Paul has already performed more live shows than any other contestant from a talent search programme, whilst in recognition of Paul's meteoric 'rags to riches' rise to fame, his life story has been turned into a film also entitled One Chance and stars award-winning comedian James Corden. Joining Paul is special guest Catriona Murray, a classical coprano from Nottingham. Discovered earlier this year by Britain's Got Talent winner Jamie Lambert, Catriona has begun work on compiling a solo album and has a string of concerts lined up for the summer season. Paul Potts is once again set to remind audiences of his inspiring charm and rich, mellifluous classical prowess, complemented by Catriona Murray - a new genera-

McLaren returns to Pebble Beach with one-off 570S

FOUR years on from its global launch, McLaren Special Operations (MSO) will return to the USA's famous Pebble Beach Concours d'Elegance later this month with a selection of distinctive to customers. and beautiful commissions.

The bespoke division of McLaren will showcase some of the individualisation options it will make available on the forthcoming new 570S Coupé, the first model the 'Longtail' heritage. to join the McLaren Sports Series.

Two examples have been created.

The first 570S Coupé by MSO features the uniquely formulated Mauvine Blue paint finish coupled with a bespoke interior finished in Carbon Black leather with from the exterior colour.

A second 570S Coupé, finished in Ventura Orange and fitted with a selection of styling details from the MSO Defined range of options, will take up position on the popular Concept Lawn examples and features design aspects at the event.

Production of the coupé-only model is strictly limited to 500 examples worldBy James Richings

With a clear focus on lightweight, optimised aerodynamics, increased power, track-focused dynamics and driver engagement, the model re-establishes

This means that the car's top speed is 330km/h (205mph), the 675LT accelerates to 100km/h (62mph) from standstill in 2.9 seconds, and hits 200km/h (124mph) in just 7.9 seconds.

Alongside the model in the Super co-ordinating detailing, carried through Series will be the even more exclusive 650S Le Mans.

> Created by MSO to celebrate the 20th anniversary of the now legendary victory at the famous French endurance race, the 650S Le Mans is limited to just 50 taken from McLaren F1 GTR chassis #01R which took victory two decades ago.

Completing the line up of McLaren wide all of which have now been assigned models on display during the weekend will be a 1996 McLaren F1 GTR. Being displayed by McLaren Automotive, on loan from BMW North America who sponsored the car during its debut season, chassis #17R was campaigned by Team Bigazzi and competed at various races through the season including finishing eighth at the 24 Hours of Le Mans. According to the critics, different is great, because they voted the New Citroën C4 Cactus hatchback of the year. It's full of clever ideas like the protective side airbumps and instead of the usual cluttered dash, there's a simple 7" touchscreen with built-in reversing camera. We think it looks pretty cool too, but that's just what happens when you do things out of the ordinary.

ageuk BIRTER OPHORIUM

Head of Service Oxfordshire Dementia Support Service

Location: Abingdon Hours: 35 hours per week Salary: circa £33,000 per annum Contract: Permanent

We have partnered with YoungDementia UK and Guideposts Trust to create a new service to ensure every person, whatever age, diagnosed with dementia and their family can be supported to live well in the community.

This is an exciting opportunity to develop the new service, in collaboration with our partners, leading and inspiring a team of staff and volunteers, building strong relationships with health and social care colleagues to ensure pathways of care work effectively and, above all, ensuring that the service is responsive to the needs of people living with dementia.

Closing Date: Friday 4th September 2015 Interviews: Friday 11th September 2015 Final Interviews: Friday 18th September 2015

Plato holds series lead at Knockhill

JASON Plato endured a turbulent weekend at Knockhill circuit last weekend after he had his advantage as leader of the British Touring Car Championship (BTCC) cut to just eleven points.

The Team BMR driver only qualified twelfth for the weekend's first race, so he added extra ballast in order to aid his qualifying for the second, finishing 23rd overall in the first race.

The seventh meeting of the BTCC this year saw Plato attempt to recover his weekend in the second and third races as he managed to finish the races in seventh and fourth respectively, maintaining his position as series leader.

Plato said after the race: "From where we were in qualifying it was a really good weekend.

"We've really rescued it I've only lost five points. We're going to three circuits now where there are longer corners - the problem with Knockhall is it just doesn't suit our car.

"It's just the way it is, but this is the only circuit on the calendar with these characteristics, so I'm pleased with the weekend."

Four defeats in a row for United

ABINGDON United fell to their fourth consecutive defeat in four league games after Longlevens AFC knocked three past Steve Alman's side on Tuesday at Saw Mills.

A brace from Brad Martin and an effort from Shaun O'Connor gave the home side the win that leaves United bottom of the Hellenic Premier League table.

United have been edging closer to their first points of the season over the last couple of games and were cruelly undone against Tuffley Rovers on Saturday despite Jack Ross' goal in a 2-1 defeat at the Northcourt.

Ross had found space in the seventh minute to control a free kick and head past Rovers' Aaron Taylor into the Rovers goal.

Rovers scored their equaliser through captain Ashley Davies in the second half who latched onto a header from Gareth Davies, and fired home from close range.

The visitors then sealed the win two minutes after through Anthony Herrin, who met a cross to head home at the far post.

United announced on Saturday that they'd added two new faces to this season's squad with ex-Abingdon Town defender Francesco Merola and ex-Thame United keeper, Tom Plumridge joing the club.

Toussaint's U's delight

DESTINEY Toussaint was 'over the moon' to open her account for Oxford United Women in their inspiring 3-2 victory over Watford Ladies in the FA Women's Super League 2 on Sunday at Berkhamsted.

Toussaint scored the winner in a frantic encounter that saw United come back from being two goals down to score two goals within the dying min-

Sahara Osborne-Ricketts had headed the U's into a halftime lead before Kim Farrow and Ellie Mason gave Watford the lead with just fifteen minutes left on the clock.

Toussaint said: "For me it was a feeling of relief. It was a ball over the top and everyone threw themselves at it. We knew there were only a few minutes to go and when the referee gave it we were delighted and over the moon."

The new signing believed that the team always knew they could get back into the game and that they 'stuck together' in order to get the result.

She said: "The two goals were disappointing but we stuck together and worked as a team."

Sport Bites

Wantage victorious

FOOTBALL: Wantage Town bagged themselves another three points in the Southern League Division One South & West on Saturday with a 3-1 win over Shortwood United at Alfredian Park.

The Freds found their breakthrough on 35 minutes after an attack led to Ben Whitehead breaking clear and he struck an effort into the corner from 25 yards out.

Shortwood found their equaliser in 45 minutes after a swinging cross from the right was met by Liam Meredith from close range.

The resulting kick-off saw the Freds regain the lead after Whitehead's corner was knocked in at the far post by Stuart Cattell to head home his second of the season.

The Freds then rounded out the scoring with Sam Collier squaring the ball to Whitehead, who lashed home his second of the day from seven yards.

Wantage are set to face off against Didcot Town in a preliminary round of the FA Cup tomorrow at Alfredian Park.

O'Dowda gets Int'l call- up

FOOTBALL: Oxford United's promising winger Callum O'Dowda has been called up to the Republic of Ireland U-21 squad for next month's games.

The Kidlington 20-year-old will be in the squad for the friendly against Qatar on September 4 and their 2017 UEFA U21 Championships qualifier at Andorra on September 8.

The winger will miss United's league game against Bristol Rovers on September 6 as a result of the call-up.
